PIOCHE STOCKS.

RICH DISCOVERIES REPORTED. - Last Saturday some prospectors came in from the west, bringing remarkably rich specimens of silver ore, which they say they obtained in the southern part of Esmeralda county, near the California line. The ores are chloride, for the most part. The discoverers say the veins are of great extent, some being twenty-five feet in width. They have been trying to get some of our mining men to take interests in these deposits, and assist in developments; but no arrangement of the kind has yet been consummated. The truth is new discoveries have become so common, of late, that it is difficult to direct the attention of local capitalists in any particular direction. The discover-ies reported in Esmeralda are about 200 miles west of Pioche; we do not understand why the discoverers did not go with their developing proposition to some of the nearer mining centers. It is not best to get excited over these rose-col-ored stories.

THE NORTHERN CAMPS. - Gentlemen in from Patterson, Sacramento and Robinson Districts, in White Pine county, from 75 to 100 miles north of Pioche, say that the value of those districts will be known before long, as they will be thoroughly tested the coming summer. There is a vast extent of country up there, comprising the southeastern part of White Pine county, which is characterized by mineral belts. There are both milling and smelting ores. Capital is now concentrated to a sufficient amount to purchase necessary machinery, and mills and smelters will both be erected the coming spring. The natural advantages are good in that region-abundance of wood and water, with fine farming tracts adjacent. Our informants are very sanguine in their expectations -- especially as regards Robinson District.

COMMODORE STRUTTSTIFF says he fairly won his title flanking an alligator in the Florida swamp by jumping through his breeches and leaving a faithful dog to guard them, thus checking the pursuit of the scaly enemy, and that he will swim a river of blood, and furnish the blood for the purpose, before it shall be surrendered. Admiral Chancetaker, who saved himself when his canal boat was wrecked in a gale by floating safely over the turbulent billows on a whisky barrel, thinks his dignity will be preserved in history if it should be endangered by the conventionalities of society.

EXECUTION OF SENTENCE SUSPENDED .-In the case of the State vs. Wm. Newman, indicted for grand larceny, the motion for a new trial was over-ruled. Counsel for defendant appeals the case to the Su-preme Court on the rule refusing a new trial. The sentence of the Court was pronounced that said Newman be confined in the State Prison at hard labor for three years. The defendant is allowed to give bail pending the trial on appeal in the sum of $5,000. The Clerk was ordered to make out a transcript on appeal within ten days.

A FIGHT.-About five o'clock yester day afternoon a tailor and a restaurant waiter got into a fight in front of the Fashion saloon, on the corner of Main and Lacour streets, and succeeded in tramping out enough mortar to cement a stone-wall half around the city, and a stone-wall hair around the city, and they put a little hair in it, too, to make it stick good. No damage done except a few buttons snapped from their fastenings by the laughter of the convused bystanders. Four or five hundred gathered to witness the gladiatorial display.

FIRE WARDEN APPOINTED .- Foreman Holland, of the Hose and Engine Company, was authorized by the Commissioners, yesterday, to procure a suitable house for the sale keeping of the hose and carriage; also, to engage a man to keep the hydrants in proper condition, and do other necessary work connected with the Pioche Fire Department. The Commissioners could not have taken a more sensible step.

FIRE INSURANCE IN PIOCHE. - Sproston & Henley, fire insurance agents for the State of Nevada, main office at Virginia City, are arranging to establish a sub-agency in this city. With our admirable water-works and efficient Fire Depart-ment we see no reason why the great in-suring companies should shun us—but they certainly are a little afraid of taking LOVELY NIGHTS. - The filling moon again travels through cloudless skies and smiles on snowless valleys. The moun-tains, however, are still robed in white.

EDITOR RECORD: I see in the report of the Saturday's meeting at the schoolhouse that there has been conferred upon me a title to which I have no earthly claim. The assumption of titles, unfortunately so prevalent among us, has always struck me as being an unworthy and contemptible weakness to which many men of otherwise sterling character and qualities, are too often, and too readily, prone. I am perfectly aware that the inexcusable pretensions and morbid vanity of members of the profession of the bar and army are, perhaps, more at fault for this than the ridiculous flattery of the public that panders to it; but I sincerely trust that the day is not distant when every lawyer, who is not a judge, will have the good sense and good taste to see that it is not creditable to his true personal dignity to allow himself to be addressed as such; and when every soldier who has worn the blue coat or the gray will have the manly honesty to disclaim the pseudonyms of captain, major or colonel, so plentifully showered upon him. For myself, I emphatically deprecate this silly weakness. I claim no other title (and a higher and prouder title I could not claim) than that of simple American citizen-an honored title which this great country, in her exalted and generous liberality to the alien and the stranger who has found a refuge within her domain, has nobly bestowed upon me. I have the honor to be, respectfully, A. B. O'DOUGHERTY.

THEATER. - Last night Mr. F. M. Bates must have felt gratified at the large audience there assembled to do honor to the occasion of his benefit. Richlieu is undoubtedly the best character that Mr. Bates has essayed in this city. Throughout the impersonation gave evidence of a very arduous study of the character. As Julia de Mortimer Mrs. F. M. Bates played with that care which marks all this lady's efforts. The company appeared to good advantage. Mr. Dunne as De Maupra was good; Mr. Lindsay as Baradas played well; Mr. Maguire acted the small part of Joseph with a distinctness of character that was praiseworthy;
Mr. Lorraine as the King, and Messrs.
Howe and Lovell did very well. Tonight the great sensation of "Under the Gaslight" will be produced, with new scenic and mechanical effects. Knowing how excellent the "Colleen Bawn" was put on, we can anticipate the success of "Under the Gaslight." Tickets, as usual, at Mr. Gorman's, next door to

FURIOUS RUNAWAY .-- About one o'clock Sunday afternoon there was a furious runaway of a mixed team, consisting of two mules and two mustangs—the latter being in the lead, and doing all the deviltry. The mules were thrown, and it being a down grade, the mustaugs succeeded in descript. ceeded in dragging them along with the wagon several blocks. No serious dam-age, but one of the mules "got a terrific head put on him" a la Pioche bruiser, and lost five or six inches of one of his ears. The mustangs appeared very much discomfitted when they looked around and saw the mules alive and the wagon

WE understand that Judges Sanderson, Haggin and Lake, of California, and Judge Mesick, of Virginia, the eminent counselors, are expected to arrive in Pioche during the week. It is reported also that N. Greene Curtis, the distinguished advocate, is coming from Sacra-mento. They are all, we believe, interested in the great mining suits now pending in the District Court.

THE heart of Mr. Gibfried, of the San Francisco Restaurant, Meadow Vølley street, was made to jump with joy, day before yesterday, by the receipt of a telegram from Detroit, Mich., his former home, announcing that his wife had been delivered of a bouncing female infant. He walks as if he wore cork-heels three Capitalists Coming. - A number of the most prominent mining men of the Pacific coast are reported to be on their way here from San Francisco, to be presduring the trial of the important mining cases now pending in the Seventh District Court. Others are expected from Salt Lake City and the East.

In the District Court, yesterday, the case of the State vs. John Haggerty, indicted for murder by the last Grand Jury, came on for trial. The panel was ex-hausted without obtaining a jury, and a special venire was issued, returnable day after to-morrow at 11 a. m.

WM. M. WILSON, formerly of the firm of Travis & Co., arrived in Pioche night before last, and will remain with us an indefinite period. Mr. Wilson has promising mining interests in this district, and comes to give them personal attention.

PLEASURE-SEEKERS, whose amusements run in the Terpsichorean line, will find something interesting in the special notice department this morning. Old Harmony Hall will be gay and brilliant next Weduesday night.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—Board met yesterday, pursuant to adjournment. Some important business was transacted. The minutes not having been made up, we will not be able to publish the report until to-morrow.

JUDGE GOODRICH, of Bullionville, leaves Pioche this morning for Bristol District. where he has extensive interests. We hope his wards down in quartz mill metropolis will behave themselves during his absence.

A LENGTHY NEW ADVERTISEMENT -In this issue will be found a lengthy new advertisement, headed "Mining Claims Lo-cated in the Meadow Valley District from

WM. M. LUBBOCK, Superintendent of the Floral Springs Water Works, has so far recovered from his illness as to be again able to attend to the duties of that position.

FINE GARDENS .- Some fine gardens are being planted just below Bullionville and around Panaca. The young vegetables are above ground.

THE District Court will not be in session to-day. Will convene in the morning at 11 a. m.

THE GREAT MINING SUITS.

In the Seventh District Court, Hon. M. Fuller presiding-Pioche, March 10: RAYMOND & ELY MINING COMPANY VS. HERMES MINING COMPANY-Now come plaintiffs and move to amend their complaint, without prejudice to the injunc-tion heretofore ordered and issued. Objected to by defendants' counsel. Objection overruled, to which ruling of the Court exception was taken.

Plaintiffs allowed to amend complaint accordingly; and defendants given ten days in which to file and serve their auswer.

KENTUCKY MINING COMPANY—The trial of said cause ordered continued until Monday, March 17. RAYMOND & ELY MINING COMPANY VS.

GLOOMY NEWS FROM SEPTOE VVLLEY. -Domineck Tarpy, a well-known citizen of Pioche, arrived last night from Steptoe Valley. He brings gloomy news from that stock and farming region. The stock are dying there in large numbers—dying from starvation. One man lost 700 out of a herd of 1,000. The higher grazing grounds are snow-covered, and on the lower the snow has fallen and melted so often that all the nutrition of the grasses has been bleached out. There is no hay in the country, and the whole herds are too weak and poor to be driven out.

CITY CLUB ROOMS .- There has been a change in the proprietorship of this favorite resort. Mr. Allen retires from the firm, and Brown, Allen & Finagin will be succeeded by Brown & Finagin. The Club Rooms will be found one of the most pleasant retreats on Main street, the bar being constantly supplied with the best wines, liquors and cigars. See the advertisement of the Club Rooms, as changed.

THE FLORAL MILL ATTACHED. - An attachment has been put on the new Floral mill, to satisfy a demand in favor of Ham Light of $16,224. Work was suspended day before yesterday. It is unneccessary to say the lien will not be allowed to re-main on the mill long, as it is worth four or five times that sum, and is one of the most profitable investments ever made in

Some of the Pioche property-holders are running projections out into the street, on the supposition that the new town law will be put in force, when such work will be forbidden. Did they ever hear of such a thing as municipal authorities ordering nuisances removed?

HIGHLAND.-Work has been suspended on the Mendha mill, Highland, from lack of material. The necessary material has long been on the road. To-day work will be commenced on the furnace, to be connected with the mill for the roast ng of
